

Ahold Delhaize USA Unites for Company-Wide Fall Day of Service to Support Local Communities

September 19, 2025

More Than 1,600 Volunteer Hours Served and $30,000 Donated to Local Nonprofits

SALISBURY, N.C., (Sept. 19, 2025) – Leading East Coast grocery retail group Ahold Delhaize USA hosted its annual Fall Day of Service on Sept. 19. Through the company's community engagement and charitable giving arm, ADUSA Cares, associates participated in a bi-annual service day aimed at reducing food insecurity in local communities.

"Each year, our Fall Day of Service reminds us of the power of coming together to make a meaningful difference," said Christy Phillips-Brown, Vice President of Communications at Ahold Delhaize USA. "We thank our associates who rolled up their sleeves to support our neighbors in need and advance our shared purpose to reduce food insecurity across local communities."

Over 500 associates across seven states will take part in nearly 40 different volunteer opportunities ranging from soup kitchen service and food pantry support to community gardening and more. The events included:

- Carlisle, Pa.: In collaboration with Harrisburg Area Food Bank, New Hope Ministries and The Salvation Army, associates will support food pantry and warehouse operations. A team of associates will also work in the community garden at The Bridge Eco-Village.
- Chicago: Alongside Pilsen Food Pantry and Feeding My Starving Children, associates will sort, pack and inspect donated goods while also fulfilling donation requests.
- Landover, Md.: In partnership with Maryland Food Bank and Capital Area Food Bank associates will sort, pack and inspect donated goods while also fulfilling donation requests.
- Mauldin, S.C.: Associates will help Harvest Hope Food Bank with various food rescue tasks.
- Quincy, Mass.: In collaboration with the South Shore YMCA, associates will provide harvest support at the Hanover Family Farm and Germantown Community Garden. Associates will also volunteer at Interfaith Social Services and Greater Boston Food Bank to aid food pantry operations. At Community Servings and St. Francis House, teams will provide kitchen assistance to prepare and package client meals.
- Salisbury, N.C.: At Feed NC, Rowan Helping Ministries and Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina, associates will provide food pantry support and assist with various food rescue tasks.
- Scarborough, Maine: In partnership with Good Shepherd Food Bank, Maine Needs and Partners for World Health associates will sort, pack and inspect donated goods while also fulfilling donation requests.

In addition to contributing volunteer hours, Ahold Delhaize USA will donate $30,000 to the 20 participating nonprofits to help advance their missions.
